This Is How God Works

SLASHING LIES AND SOAKING IN TRUTH

Not long ago, I was asked to speak at a ladies spring tea. This was a fun, fancy occasion with many of us donning hats and enjoying tasty teas in fancy cups.

I spoke on “Slashing Lies and Soaking in Truth.” Here’s a synopsis of my talk.

“We live in a world filled with lies. Many of them drift around like blow-up toys in a swimming pool. The Father of lies poses as an angel of light and whispers, Your husband would love you more if you lost 20 pounds; you deserve that vacation... just a little more debt won't make any difference. He knows his time is limited so he prowls around like a roaring lion seeking someone to devour.

“These lies affect us. Some of them cause us to make choices that we will later regret. What about abortion? We listened to the liar telling us it was only fetal tissue and now we can't stop crying because we know deep inside that we killed our baby. What if we get raped? If sexual abuse happens, the liar tells us that we are finished — we are only a piece of trash. The lies that come from these things go deep into our soul and that's where the devil wants them to stay. He is a destroyer and a thief wanting to rob us of the abundant life that Jesus promises in John 10:10 when He says, ‘I have come that you might have life and have it more abundantly.’

“What can we do? We need to slash these lies and tell the devil that the blood of Jesus covers us and that we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us and gave His life for us. We are to stand firm in the truth and soak in it daily. Our Father treasures us and nothing can separate us from His love.

“Take time to sit and listen to you're Heavenly Father today. Ask Him if there are any lies you believe, then renounce them in Jesus name and focus on truth. The truth will set you free!”
