Good evening:

Barbara went home to our Lord this evening, at 7:15 p.m.

Their daughter Carla was tending to Barbara when Barbara opened her eyes and smiled. Carla brought Gerry in and they both were with Barbara when she passed.

Gerry said she went peacefully, and is now in the loving presence of Christ.

In His service,

Jim

At journey's end, take a long look back

At the details of her story;

Take time to review Barbara's godly life

She's our loved one now in Glory.

When we grieve for a loved one, it's vital to recall the cherished details and shared experiences of that life. Join us next week at Barbara's memorial as we remember deeply our great friend and child of God.

See details of the memorial on the next page.
