

The Genius of Generosity

What's the secret to being truly smart when it comes to managing your finances, possessions, and life? The Creator of all things invites you to enter into deeper levels of generosity with Him, so you can become "wise in your giving" and "generous in living."

When we begin to grasp God's extravagant love and generosity toward us, we begin to be generous toward Him and others in His kingdom. The result: Our generosity becomes a visible expression of our love for Him.

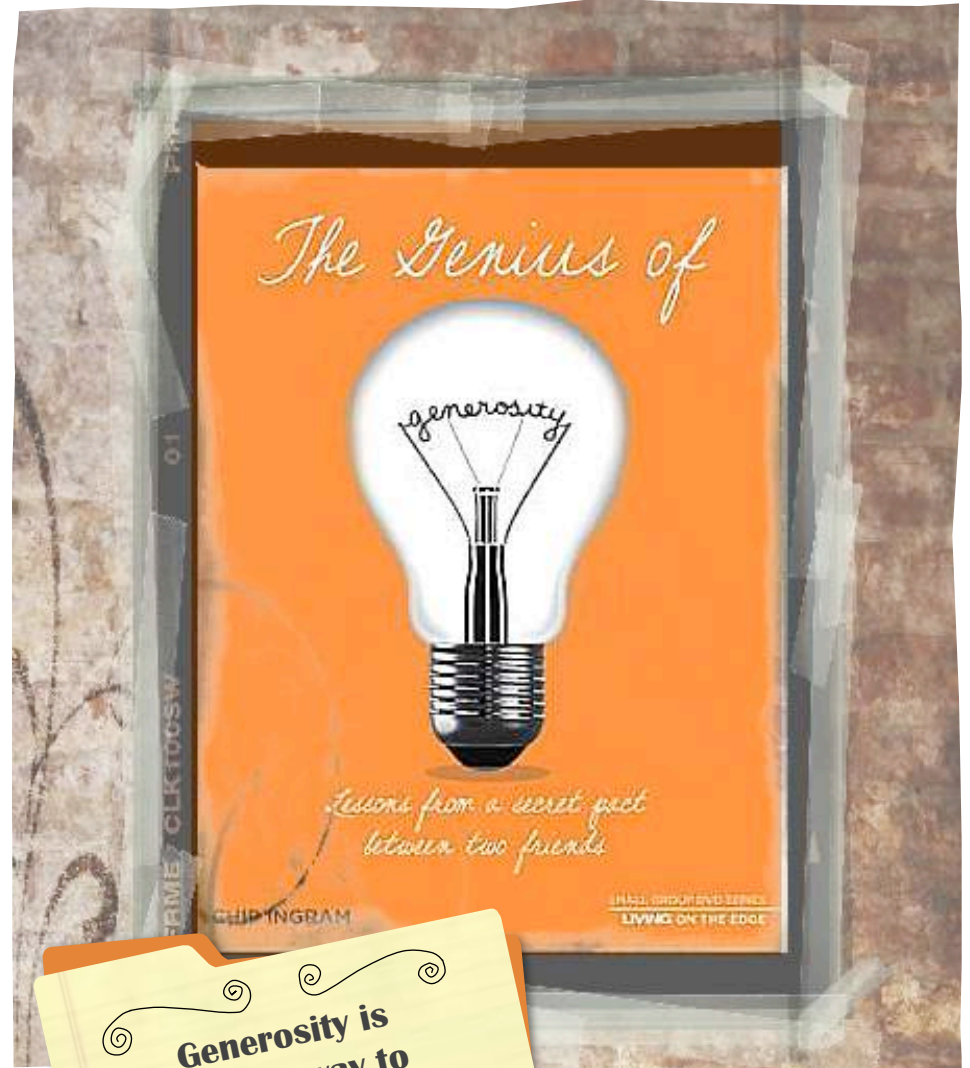

Invite friends to your small-group meetings, read The Genius of Generosity, watch Chip's video, and listen to the pastors' Sunday messages; then discuss "generosity" freely with your friends and ask the Holy Spirit to invite you to use the spiritual gifts He has given you as you begin to give and live more generously.
