FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NEW IMPROVED WEBSITE

WCA-SA Empowers People to Change the World

Arnold, Cal. — April 5, 2010 -- Warren Camp Design (www.warrencampdesign.com) is pleased to announce the launch of its brand new website belonging to World Changers Academy of South Africa (WCA-SF) at <http://www.wca-sa.com>. The missionary organization's new site represents the life-changing role it has been playing for nearly 10 years, for the unemployed and high school students in and around Durban, South Africa. Many thousands have already been trained through hundreds of WCA's courses in more than 75 different communities.

TWO GOALS

World Changers Academy's primary goal is to provide its website visitors with attractive content, developed and written for those interested in its offered life skills programs that empower disadvantaged people in its local community. Visitors can also see how this missionary organization strives to make a positive impact on the lives of South Africans by changing and developing the minds, hearts, and spirits of people as it offers those in need life skills courses and a variety of resources.

SITE FEATURES

The site's features, such as personal testimonies, course materials and calendars, news, and photo gallery enable visitors to become acquainted with this unique organization that empowers people to succeed and become leaders.

SOCIAL NETWORKING

The links to our FACEBOOK, TWITTER, YouTube, and WAYN make it easy for visitors to follow WCA-SA and retrieve the latest contents including photos, videos, and newsletters.
